EXPERIENCE AND ACCOMPLISHMENTS

RIVALCAST MEDIA
2015-2018
WRITER AND EDITOR
Interned under Rivalcast Media Writing, while it was active, and responsible for developing an ongoing story series, learned formatting through their web publisher, and worked on promotional campaigns. Also assisted with the editing and coaching of other writers' work, read manuscripts and proofread pieces for publication.

BREAKOUT GAMES
2019-2020
ASSISTANT MANAGER
www.breakoutgames.com
Guide customers through a 60 minute/1 hour experience, providing hints when customers wish and congratulating them when they are done. Set up the room before each game and reset it afterward for the next scheduled game. Provide maintenance and cleaning as needed and run the lobby, checking customers in, booking games, and greeting them as they enter and leave the store along with various managerial duties. Updated and created various props and clues for customer and employee enjoyment.

PUDDLE JUMP GAMES @ VIRGINIA SERIOUS GAMES INSTITUTE
6/4/2018-8/10/18
PROGRAMING INTERN
Interned with Puddle Jump Games, a start-up company to program their debut project. Worked in the Unity Engine to program prototypes and design systems that will be used in the final project.

PROJECTS

THE CHRONICLER: APPLICATION/WEBSITE
chronicler.seanmfrancis.net
The Chronicler is a Discord Bot made for Pen and Paper RPG servers that records messages in a Discord text channel and displays it in a novelized format on its website using a MySQL database. Other features include customizing what is shown on the website and the ability to roll dice right from Discord.

THE FIRESIDE TALES
https://seanmfrancis.net/index.php?page=written_works&type=index
The Fireside Tales are novelizations of Adventure Paths from Pathfinder First Edition, the first being Rise of the Runelords and the second being Wrath of the Righteous. They were written while I was working with Rivalcast Media and were edited by myself.
